

PLATE XV

Part of a good haul of Nile perch caught in gill nets in deep water on Lake Albert, from the fisheries launch St. Clair, during experimental fishing.
[Photograph by B. G. Kinloch].

PLATE XVI

Fisheries Officer using aqua-lung on Lake Albert from the St. Clair whilst salvaging fishing boat.
(See paragraph 222). [Photograph by B. G. Kinloch.]

PLATE XVII

The Kajansi Fish Farm site as seen from the air at the end of June, 1953, showing the dense swamp forest prior to the start of clearing. [Photograph by Paul Elwell].

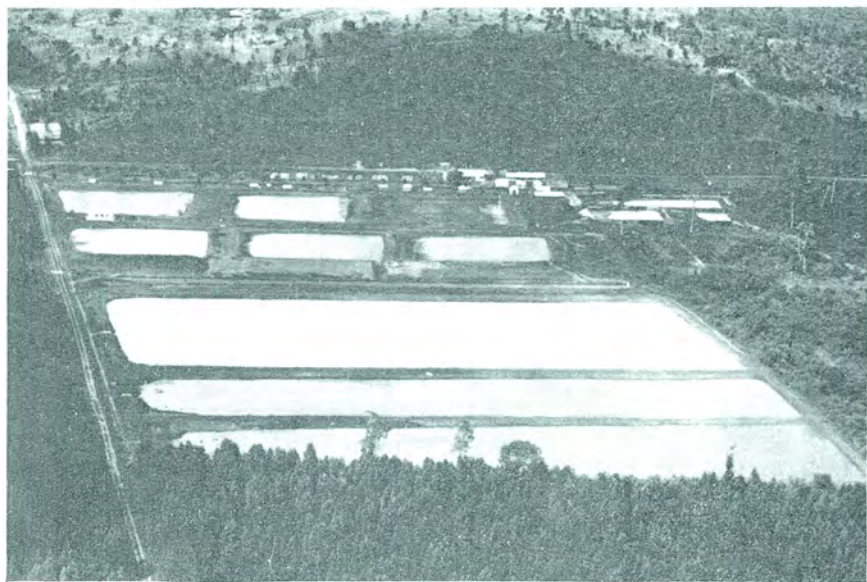

PLATE XVIII

Part of the same site at the end of 1957, showing the series of experimental and production fish ponds developed at Kajansi since 1953. [Photograph by C. J. H. Simpson].

PLATE XIX

Mechanised Sesse canoes at Kigungu landing, Entebbe (Wireless Station Beach).
[Photograph by Information Department].

PLATE XX

Close-up of Sesse canoe powered with 4 h.p. outboard engine to show the square, cut away transom. [Photograph by Information Department].

PLATE XXI

The engines sometimes break down! Outboard engine "workshop" at Kigungu.
[Photograph by Information Department].

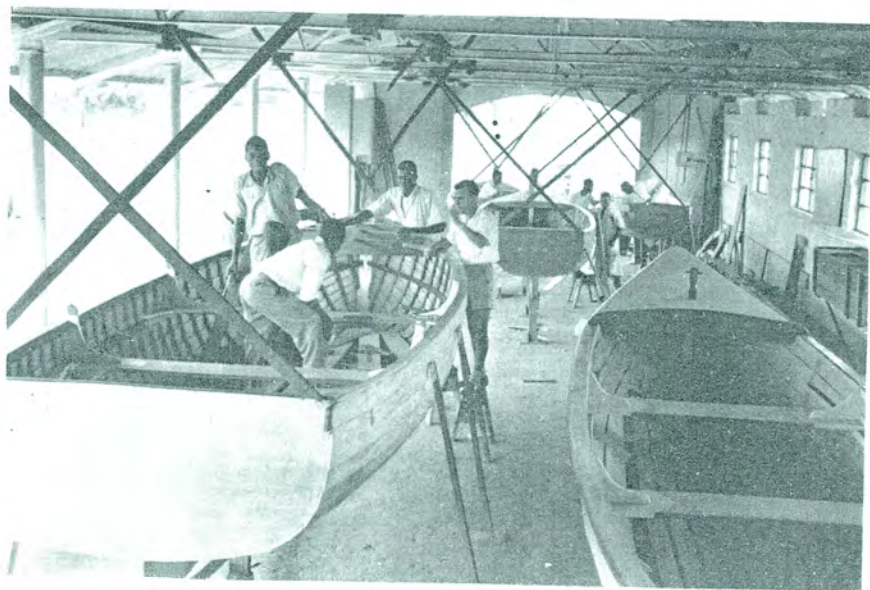

PLATE XXII

The boat-building section of Kabalega Technical School, Masindi, where improved types of fishing boats to take inboard and outboard engines are being produced.
[Photograph by J. Stoneman].

PLATE XXIII

Professor J. A. C. Crutchfield (centre), F.A.O. fish marketing expert, studies fish sales at Masese landing, Jinja. [Photograph by B. G. Kinloch.]

PLATE XXIV

Fish retailing at Kigungu landing, Entebbe. [Photograph by Information Department.]

PLATE XXV

Fish camp in sudd at south end of Lake Albert where salted fish for Belgian Congo market is being prepared. [Photograph by D. H. Rhodes].

PLATE XXVI

Sun drying of nkeje for Uganda markets—Bugonga village, Entebbe. [Photograph by Information Department].

PLATE XXVII

A lung fish caught in an unusual manner by swallowing a tilapia and then the major part of the gill net which had caught the tilapia in the first place.

[Photograph by
D. H. Rhodes].

PLATE XXVIII

Record Rainbow trout of 9 lbs. 13 ozs. from the River Sipi, Mount Elgon, held by its captor, Major

F. L. C. Herbert.

[Photograph by
F. T. Reader].

